Good and Bad

by John Carr

Characters

Storyteller
(teacher or other fluent reader)

Everyone
(everyone else in class or group)

Storyteller: One day Cindy was sailing to school in a big ship.

Everyone: That's good!

Storyteller: No, that's bad. The ship got stuck on the rocks.

Everyone: That's bad!

Storyteller: No, that's good. A big tractor came to pull the ship off the rocks.

Everyone: That's good!

Storyteller: No, that's bad. The tractor's wheels got stuck in the mud.

Everyone: That's bad!

Storyteller: No, that's good. A big bulldozer came to push the tractor out of the mud.

Everyone: That's good!

Storyteller: No, that's bad. The bulldozer got stuck in the sand.

Everyone: That's bad!

Storyteller: No, that's good. A big crane came to lift the bulldozer out of the sand.

Everyone: That's good!

Storyteller: No, that's bad. The crane lifted the bulldozer and Cindy high into the sky and then the wire broke.

Everyone: That's bad!

Storyteller: No, that's good. Cindy fell onto the wing of a big plane.

Everyone: That's good!

Storyteller: No, that's bad. Cindy fell off the wing.

Everyone: That's bad!

Storyteller: No, that's good. Cindy fell into a big truck full of feathers and it took her to school.

Everyone: That's good!

Storyteller: No, that's bad. It was Saturday and the school was closed.

Everyone: That's bad! That's very, very bad!