

Saltspray Idol

Maddy decided that Team Turbo should form a group, enter the Saltspray Idol contest and become the next singing sensation. So they did. They practised, they raised money and they got to the final in Sydney.

Reading strategy

Being positive about reading

- Make good guesses for unknown words
- Stop to think when a text doesn't make sense or sound right
- Reread when meaning is unclear
- Identify a text type and think about how it should be read

Comprehension focus

- Identifying the main idea

Fluency focus

- Recognising and reading keywords with confidence

Genre focus

- Recount (email)

Day 1: Before reading

- Introduce the book by discussing the cover and reading the title.
- Define the word idol and invite students to make predictions about the book.
- Encourage students to share what they know about Idol competitions.
- Allow time for them to scan the book including the contents page to check their predictions and to share any other discoveries they make.
- Introduce the reading strategy by discussing the importance of being positive about reading. Talk about
 - making good guesses for unknown words
 - stopping to think when a text doesn't make sense or sound right
 - rereading when meaning is unclear
 - identifying a text type and thinking about how it should be read

During reading

- Read the Chapter 1 heading. Ask: What does the word group suggest?
- Read the chapter to students, then identify the significant events and the main idea of the chapter. Choral read Chapter 1 together.
- Pose questions that will help students reflect on the relationships between the characters. Ask: Why did Hari think, "Who's gong to sing?" Why did Maddy say, "Late again, Hari!"
- Read the Chapter 2 heading and invite students to make predictions about what will happen during the practice.
- Read the text to students, then talk about Maddy's role in the story so far. Then identify the significant events and the main idea of the chapter.

- Choral read Chapter 2 together.
- Check students' predictions about what they thought would happen during the practice.

After reading

- Distribute Worksheet A and model how students should make entries for Chapters 1 and 2.
- Allow time for students to share and compare their work and congratulate those who stayed focused and remained on task.

Fluency focus

Read Maddy Comes Clean or Idol Rap to students. Discuss how the reader uses their voice when reading to an audience. Have students read along with Maddy Comes Clean. They practise recognising and reading keywords with confidence.

Vocabulary and spelling activities

Goals

To develop understanding about:

- suffixes -ion, -tion, -ation
- nouns
- prefix dis-
- plural for words ending in y
- words with multiple meanings

Activity 1 Suffixes -ion, -tion, -ation

Write and read the word suggestion and identify the base word suggest. Repeat the process for other words ending in -ion, -tion, or -ation, e.g. audition, donation. Discuss the base for each of them. Introduce the term "suffix" and underline -ion in the words. Explain the meaning of the suffix -ion, -tion, or -ation – the act or result of doing something. Brainstorm a list of other words with the -ion, -tion, or -ation suffix.

Activity 2 Nouns

Ask: What is a noun? Brainstorm nouns they know and list them on a board. Explain that sometimes the noun and verb of the same base word are spelt differently but they sound the same, e.g. practice (noun), practise (verb). Students find the words in the text. Some words are spelt the same and sound the same, e.g. drum, beat. Some examples aren't spelt the same, e.g. donation/donate, perform/performance, suggest/suggestion.

Activity 3 Prefix dis-

Write the word disappointed and discuss its meaning. Underline the prefix dis- and identify it as the part of the word that shows the opposite of the word. Invite students to use a dictionary to find other words with the prefix dis-, e.g. disappear, dislike. They record the list and create a rule about the prefix dis-.

Activity 4 Plural for words ending in y

Record the word ferry on the board and read it with students. Review the meaning of the word plural and invite students to write the plural of ferry. Repeat the process for other nouns ending in y, e.g. memory, tummy. Have students create a rule for forming plurals for nouns with a consonant y ending. Record the rule on a chart along with some sample words and display the chart in a prominent place.

Activity 5 Words with multiple meanings

Write the word raise and ask students to explain the meaning. Look at page 16 and read the word raise in context. What does raise mean here? (The children need to raise money to pay for their trip.) Explain that raise has more than one meaning. What other meanings can raise have? (an increase in salary; lift something to a higher level; make bread dough increase in size) Students look for more words with multiple meanings in the text and discuss, e.g. cool, can, beat, trip. Brainstorm and make a list of words students know with multiple meanings. Write the meanings beside the words.

Day 2: Before reading

- Review how having a positive attitude helps us improve as readers and the importance of drawing on what we know about texts, words, letters, sounds, grammar and punctuation when we read.
- Involve students in orally summarising the story so far.
- Allow time for students to read the next two chapter headings and discuss implied meanings.

During reading

- Read Chapter 3 to students, stopping at appropriate places to pose questions that will help students develop understanding. Ask: Why is Hari not so keen to do the auction?
- Choral read Chapter 3 together.
- Read Chapter 4 to students then ask: Why did Hari get interested in the auction after all?
- Choral read Chapter 4 together. Discuss the significant events and main idea for both chapters.

After reading

- Explain expectations for Chapters 3 and 4 on Worksheet A.
- Discuss the value of rereading excerpts in context. Model the process and allow time for students to complete the task.

The rap: rhythm, rhyme and repetition

Goals

- To provide a forum for meaningful reading practice
- To use rhythm, rhyme and repetition and shared reading experiences to build students' confidence
- To further develop students' ability to read keywords automatically

Activity 1 Introduce the rap

Read the rap with students. Invite volunteers to read the rap independently.

Activity 2 Perform the rap

Encourage students to perform word or sound percussion in time with the rhythm of the rap. Pairs of students perform the rap with one student chanting a repetitive phrase or sound quietly in the background while the other student reads the rap.

Activity 3 Identify rhyme

Analyse each verse and the refrain to identify the pattern that has been used. Note any deviations and discuss. Identify the words at the end of the second line and the last line of each verse. Identify words that rhyme and words that don't and the humour at the end of the rap. Students choose a set of rhymes and write a verse using the same pattern as the original. They perform their verse as part of a group performance.

Activity 4 Identify rhythm

Identify the way that syllables work to establish a rhythm, e.g. when the last two lines are read as one. Brainstorm for other phrases with a similar rhythm that could be introduced. Have students practise varying the volume of their voices to add another dimension to the sound pattern.

Activity 5 Publish a rap

Have each student produce their own rap about one aspect of performing. They use a computer and add graphics to their rap. Students jointly publish their raps as one book along with other details about performing. Identify the cover features of books that are made up of collections of stories. Students include these features in their publication of raps.

Day 3: Before reading

- Review the reading strategy by inviting students to recall the things they can do to show they have a positive attitude towards reading.
- Discuss the importance and value of observing other readers, reading along with others and practising reading independently.
- Involve students in summarising the story so far and discussing how they think it will end.

During reading

- Read Chapter 5 to students, then choral read it together. Discuss the ending in light of students' predictions and allow time for them to confirm or negate their predictions.
- Identify the significant events in the chapter. Encourage diversity of opinion and allow time for students to voice their ideas and opinions.
- Have students identify any unfamiliar words in the text, e.g. chipmunks, instrument, guitar, session, garage.
- Involve students in applying a range of strategies to decode the words.

After reading

- Discuss expectations for Chapter 5 on Worksheet A and help students complete the task.

Write an email

Goals

- To read and write an email
- To identify and discuss the features of an email

Emails can be written to share good news, bad news, ask a question, or express the writer's feelings or opinions about something. They are sent electronically and are received anywhere in the world almost immediately. Photos and scanned documents can be attached to the email.

- Ask: Has anyone sent an email? What do you know about emails? Tell students about email etiquette which includes a clear subject line; a greeting; good grammar and spelling. It is important to check that the address you have entered is correct. It is polite to reply to an email promptly.
- Involve students in discussing their own emailing habits – who they send them to and what they are about.
- Allow time for students to read Maddy Comes Clean. Reread Maddy's email together and model how to add some text to each paragraph. Encourage students to be descriptive and use new and interesting words in their writing when completing Worksheet B.
- Discuss the operation and screen displays of the email service the school uses for writing, sending, receiving, saving, deleting and printing email.
- Reread Maddy's email and say: We could use this format to help us compose and send an email.
- Identify the different features at the top of an email and highlight the purpose of the subject section.
- Model how to compose and send the email. Match students with an email partner and review school requirements for sending email.
- Invite students to suggest an attachment that Maddy could have sent to her friend, e.g. a newspaper report, photograph or scanned drawing. Review how to scan and save a drawing as an attachment to an email.
- Remind students to keep their emails brief; to sound out words when writing; to use spelling and grammar checks.
